Preventing Biting & Other Aggressive Behaviors in Infants and Toddlers

Description: Why do young children express negative behaviors? This class will help you gain an understanding of impulse control and self-regulation and how to identify ways to reduce negative behaviors in child care. We will explore scenarios and identify ways to support children during negative situations.

Session Dates/Locations:

April 12, 6:15pm – 8:45pm (Avon)

CDA Content: CDA03 – 1.5hrs, CDA07 – 0.5hrs, CDA08 – 0.5hrs

Appropriate Expectations for Infants and Toddlers: Understanding Developmental Milestones from Birth-3

Description: As every year passes, we expect more and more from our growing children in our care. Are the expectations that we hold realistic? Or do we set such high, or low, expectations that our infants and toddlers may never meet them? We will discuss the developing infant and toddler and the behavior expectations we have. We will also discuss strategies to support these children and parent expectations.

Session Dates/Locations:

May 17, 6:15pm – 8:30pm (Fishers)

CDA Content: CDA02 – 0.5hrs, CDA03 – 0.25hrs, CDA08 – 1.5hrs

Chew on This: A Look at Infant and Toddler Feeding and Nutrition

Description: This training will provide an overview of infant and toddler nutrition and what feeding looks like in group care. We will identify what and how often infants and toddlers should be eating and ways to help children identify hunger and full cues. We'll also explore how to implement family style dining, and we'll discuss your own feelings on food and meals.

Session Dates/Locations:

June 28, 6:15pm – 8:30pm (Indianapolis)

CDA Content: CDA01 – 2.25

Modification and Adaptations: Adapting materials/ lesson plans for children with special needs

Description: Adapting and modifying toys for children with disabilities or special needs can be challenging. Come and participate in this interactive training to learn simple ways to modify the toys in your program. Please feel free to bring an item to modify during this session.

Session Dates/Locations:
June 19, 6:15pm – 8:30pm (Carmel)

CDA Content: CDA01 – 1.25hrs, CDA08 – 1.0hrs

Self-Regulation: Helping Children With High Energy and Low Focus

Description: The term self-regulation is a common buzz word in the field of early childhood education. Sometimes it may be difficult to know what it really means and how it relates to young children and their behaviors. In a nutshell, it describes things children learn to manage over time. Some children are able to manage these skills quicker than others. This can present many challenges in the classroom. So what do you do in the mean time? Join us in this workshop to discuss how we help emotionally-overloaded children build the skills they need to manage their strong emotions. Walk away with tools and strategies in supporting children who have high energy. Learn what components are needed in the environment to support children to focus on tasks.

Session Dates/Locations:
June 1, 6:15pm – 8:30pm (Avon)

CDA Content: CDA02 – 1.0hrs, CDA03 – 1.0hrs, CDA04 – 0.25hrs

Caring for Children with Special Needs

Description: We explore foundational inclusion-related topics such as the Americans with Disabilities Act, person-first language, the benefits of inclusion, and resources available throughout the community.

Session Dates/Locations:
May 4, 6:15pm – 8:15pm (Indianapolis)

CDA Content: CDA05 – 0.25hrs, CDA06 – 0.25hrs, CDA08 – 1.5hrs

Creating a Cozy Corner in Your Classroom

Description: A full day of child care can be stressful and difficult to manage for some young children. A cozy corner or a 'be-by-myself' space can be set aside in the classroom for a child to use when he or she feels overwhelmed, upset, or tense. This serves as a protected place where children are taught to go to in order to relax, calm down, or take a break. Let's look at our environments and see how we can create such a space and the many benefits the space offers young children.

Session Dates/Locations:
June 8, 6:15pm – 8:30pm (Indianapolis)

CDA Content: CDA01 – 1.0hrs, CDA03 – 1.25hrs

Wild Emotions

Description: How do you handle all of those wild emotions? Young children are still learning about their own emotions and emotions of others. It is important to note that ALL feelings and emotions are OK - it is how you handle those feelings that counts. You will leave this training with new knowledge about young children and their social and emotional development. You will also gain new ideas for teaching children those coping skills. It all starts by remembering these young children don't have the skills yet to regulate their emotions - they learn from us. Join us while we talk about all of those wild emotions and how you as a caregiver can support the children you care for.

Session Dates/Locations:

April 11, 6:30pm – 8:45pm (Indianapolis)

CDA Content: CDA03 – 2.25hrs

Balance!

Description: Balance and coordination skills help children interact with the world around them and perform more complex physical activities. Running, jumping, kicking, throwing, drawing pictures or constructing block towers are all examples of activities that develop balance and coordination. Balance and coordination skills develop over time as children play and experiment with their worlds. Come learn with us some new ideas in practicing balance with your friends, including providing safe, supportive environments as your friends develop these skills. We'll experiment with some engaging balancing games and learn to make simple mobiles in the art center. All materials are provided. Christopher Nunn, Education Coordinator for Southeast Community Services, Field Ambassador at Field Museum of Natural History, and Teaching Artist at the Indianapolis Museum of Art, presents.

Session Dates/Locations:

May 25, 6:30pm – 8:30pm (Indianapolis)

CDA Content: CDA02 – 2.0hrs

Domestic Violence 101 for Service Providers

Description: This course begins with a domestic violence simulation where you will follow a character's story through their experience with domestic violence. You will process this exercise and then learn the basics of domestic violence. We will then discuss statistics, facts versus myths, ways to intervene, and resources in our community. Mary-Margaret Sweeney, MSW, Manager of Training Services for Domestic Violence Network, facilitates this course.

Session Dates/Locations:

Child Development Associate (CDA) Credential

Mollie Smith
CDA Coordinator
mollies@childcareanswers.com

The Child Development Associate (CDA) National Credential is the most widely recognized credential in early childhood education and is a key stepping stone on the path of career advancement. The program's purpose is to enhance the quality of early child care by defining, evaluating, and recognizing the competence of early child care professionals across the country. This process includes 120 clock hours of formal training in specific areas, a portfolio, family questionnaires, a verification visit, and an online exam. For more details about the specific process and requirements, visit the CDA Council's website at cdacouncil.org.

CDA Education Hours

Depending on your learning style and availability, we offer a few different options. See Childcareanswers.com for more detailed info.

- Face-to-face Training – We offer programs with varying schedules and completion times, each with their own individual requirements. Your cost may be as little as $100, thanks to scholarships through generous partners. To get started, fill out our wait list form at bit.ly/cdainterest. We will contact you to let you know when we have a spot available that fits your needs.
- Online Training - Smart Horizons also offers an Online Education CDA through the Child Care Aware Training Academy for $299, with portfolio assistance for an additional $500. Find more info at smarthorizons.org/naccrra/ccan.
- Independent Study - If you completed independent study hours and want help with next steps, contact Mollie Smith.

Renewing or Updating Your Expired CDA

All CDA credentials are valid for three years from the date of the award. There is no longer a grace period for an expired CDA. Keep all documentation for trainings and other professional development from the date of earning your credential. We suggest you start the renewing process six months prior to expiration. All info you submit for a renewal goes directly to the CDA Council in Washington D.C. Child Care Answers does not have any control or management over your CDA renewal. If your CDA has expired, your 120 hours do not expire. You will need to review and update your portfolio and reapply for the assessment process (verification visit and online exam). Go to cdacouncil.org > Credential > Renewal to view helpful checklists. If you need an ECE Reviewer, contact Mollie Smith.
